

Atsuko Yamamoto

Graduated Konan Women's University, Japanese Literature, BA.

Graduated Joshibi College of Art & Design, Embroidery.

Trained at Traditional Japanese Embroidery Kashimura Kogei, Co.,Ltd.

1980 Graduated University of London Goldsmiths College, postgraduate diploma course textile & embroidery, Art & Design Diploma.

1984 Supervised the 62 Group 20th Anniversary at Mullion Opening Celebration Exhibition in Yurakucho, Tokyo. Traveling exhibition to Kyoto.

1985 Lecturer Embroidery Design & Art to Shanghai, China from Yokohama city.

1993 Supervised the 62 Group 30th Anniversary at Hankyu Museum Opening Celebration Exhibition in Kobe Japan.

2013 Planned the 62 Group 50th Anniversary exhibition at Museum of Showa Women's University in Tokyo.

1980 Staff of "Japan Style exhibition" at V&A in London.

1984 ~ Member of the 62 group of textile artists, London.

Joined in the 62 group in 1984 and has participated in all most all exhibitions since the 1985 "one stitch challenge" exhibition.

1989 ~ 2010 Member of the International Fashion Group, New York.

2004 ~ Member of Japan Textile Council, Tokyo.

2007 ~ Preside Gallery Bonbra, Kichijoji Tokyo.

1978 ~ Solo exhibition and many group exhibitions.